MALLORY INTERNATIONAL IN RWANDA

Mallory International is probably the leading Africa specialist among British exporting booksellers, with orders of every size.

We airfreight to Kigali regularly from the UK, and our local presence in Rwanda ensures rapid clearance and delivery of orders.

Our representative in Rwanda gives an immediately available local point of contact with the customer. We have worked together for nine years, and have built an experienced and reliable partnership. Contact details are listed below. We supply almost every major educational institution in Rwanda.

The range of services offered is shown opposite. Mallory also has a purchasing office in the United States, to deal with specialised titles published there and not widely distributed in other countries.

We pay particular attention to:

- the details of supply;
- the reliability of local delivery;
- the precision of consolidation and paperwork; and
- the professional management of documentary credits and the related financial infrastructure.

When you place business with us you can rely on our detailed and precise attention.
