We airfreight to Kampala regularly from the UK, and our local presence in Uganda ensures rapid clearance and delivery of orders.

Our representative Moses Mutumba and Sarah Nassuna, his assistant, provide comprehensive local support. We have worked with Moses for more than 12 years and have built an effective partnership. Contact details are listed below.

The range of services offered is shown opposite. Mallory also has a purchasing office in the United States, to deal with specialised titles published there and not widely distributed in other countries.

We pay particular attention to:

- the details of supply;
